DAHLIA PRICE LIST OF NOVELTIES AND THE BEST HOME GARDEN SELECTIONS

I am making low prices as I have decided to reduce my plantings next year at least one half on account of failing health. Prices given are for first class, strong divisions, but I have made the price of clumps as dug so low for immediate shipment that anyone can obtain a stock of fine dahlias at this sale far below their value. Clumps one-half the list price of one bulb (or division) added to the list price of one bulb will take a clump of that variety which will divide from two to six plants and occasionally more. Cash in full for clumps with the order. Order clumps before packing in cellar December 15, to be sure of this special clump sale. Clumps are extra good this fall. I know they will please you.
